

HER PHYSICIAN ADVISED

Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Columbus, Ohio.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound during a change of life. My doctor told me it was good, and since taking it I feel so much better that I can do all my work again. I think Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is a fine remedy for all women's troubles, and never forget to tell my friends what it has done for me."

—Mrs. R. HANSON, 804 East Long St., Columbus, Ohio.

Another Woman Helped.
Granville, Vt.—"I was passing through the Change of Life and suffered from nervousness and other annoying symptoms. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound restored my health and strength, and proved worth mountains of gold to me. For the sake of other suffering women I am willing you should publish my letter."

—CHARLES BARCLAY, R.F.D., Granville, Vt.

Women who are passing through this critical period or who are suffering from any of those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not lose sight of the fact that for thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which is made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills. In almost every community you will find women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Feeble Old Lady

Has Strength Restored By Vinol

Mrs. Michael Bloom of Lewistown, Pa., who is 80 years of age, says: "For a long time I have been so feeble that I have had to be wheeled around in an invalid's chair. I had no strength and took cold at the slightest provocation, which invariably resulted in my lungs, and a cough would result. My son learned of the cod liver preparation called Vinol, and procured a bottle for me. It built up my strength rapidly, and after taking three bottles I am able to do most of my work, and I can walk a quarter of a mile easily. Every aged or weak person who requires strength should try Vinol. I am delighted with what it has done for me."

As a body builder and strength creator for old people, delicate children, weak, run-down persons, and after sickness, Vinol is unequalled. It fails to give satisfaction we will return your money.

MAY FREELY REFER TO THE BUCKS

Against the Bucks Stove and Range Co.—Sweeping Decision of 'Widespread Importance to the Labor World.

Washington, March 11.—The American Federation of Labor hereafter may freely refer to the boycott against the Bucks Stove and Range company of St. Louis, except by inclusion in the "we don't patronize" class.

Decision in Noted Injunction Case.
This in substance is the sweeping decision of widespread importance to the labor world, to manufacturers and to newspapers generally, handed down today by the court of appeals of the District of Columbia in the noted injunction case of the Bucks Stove and Range company against the American Federation of Labor, which has been before the courts of the District of Columbia a number of months.

The court holds that the defendants cannot be restrained from all publication referring to the Bucks Stove and Range company, but only such as are made in furtherance of an illegal boycott. In a partially dissenting opinion, in which Justice Brandeis concurred, the court held that the defendants' right to publish is not to be restrained by the injunction.

The court holds that the defendants cannot be restrained from all publication referring to the Bucks Stove and Range company, but only such as are made in furtherance of an illegal boycott.

The court holds that the defendants cannot be restrained from all publication referring to the Bucks Stove and Range company, but only such as are made in furtherance of an illegal boycott.

RHEUMATISM IS NOT INCURABLE DISEASE

Says It Is a Symptom of Feeble Inactive Kidneys.

Recent hospital reports show that the disease, rheumatism, is steadily increasing throughout the country. All known means of relief are being suggested to save the great amount of suffering this winter. Especially among those who are not in a position to pack up and visit the noted health resorts to be treated. Recent tests prove rheumatism not exactly a disease in itself, but a severe symptom of kidney trouble, a condition caused by clogged up pores of the eliminative tissues of the kidneys which fail to filter the poisonous waste matter and uric acid from the blood, permitting these substances to remain in the veins and decompose, usually settling about the joints and muscles, causing the intense pain, swelling and stiffness of rheumatism.

The following simple home treatment will cure Rheumatism and is harmless and inexpensive, and so simple that anybody can mix it at home.

The ingredients are: Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Karger, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Go to any good prescription pharmacy and get these three harmless ingredients and mix them by shaking in a bottle, taking as a dose a teaspoonful after each meal and again at bedtime.

There is nothing better in the world for rheumatism and kidney trouble, too. Such symptoms as frequent and painful urination, soreness, weakness, general and nervous debility are caused by certain acids and poisonous waste matter, decayed tissue, etc., in the blood, which the kidneys will clear and purify after a few doses of this prescription.

Does Seem Unfortunate.
It is unfortunate that so many creators of beautiful things, beautiful poetry, beautiful music, beautiful paintings, do not live the beautiful lives of those who create anything except healthy sentiments.—New York Evening Sun.

Should Revise His Opinions.
"All children are liars," said a Wisconsin professor the other day. A well known biblical personage who made the same statement concerning all men admitted afterward that he spoke in haste.—Chicago Post.

Should Make Himself Clear.
When Senator Rayner says there are no white rhinoceroses in Africa does he mean that they have already been acquired away? There should be no ambiguity in the utterances of statesmen.—Philadelphia Press.

A Difference.
Vice President Fairbanks will not soon forget the fatal cherry, and the captain of the Georgia does not care to be reminded of the faithful cherry.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Would Make Him Happy.
Interest in the condition of the farmer may lead to some arrangement by which next year's crop of summer boards will be less homesick.—Washington Star.

Preparing a Corking Time.
The Mad Mullah is again gyrating into the international limelight. Perhaps he is only organizing a cordial African welcome for Mr. Roosevelt.—Washington Post.

How to Serve Oysters.
Never serve an oyster lukewarm. Test the shells on a bed of cracked ice for half an hour before serving will usually give the right temperature.

Will Serve, Anyhow.
The salary of the vice president is not to be increased from $12,000 to $15,000 a year. There is no danger, however, that Mr. Sherman will get angry and refuse to serve.—Chicago Record-Herald.

Need a Guardian.
Democrats who have not "sense enough" to know that Mr. Bryan would be a candidate again, if asked, ought not to be allowed to vote in the primaries.—Charleston News and Courier.

Sound Advice.
Somebody wants to know what to do about avoiding the danger of being stabbed by women's batpins. What's the matter with keeping away from the wearers?—Boston Globe.

A Strange Story.
A family in this city has just celebrated the 26th anniversary of the entrance of the cook into their service. Truth is stranger than fiction.—New York Herald.

Real Reform.
The Kansas legislature will pass a law making it a crime to work the "affinity" law. The repeal of the unwritten law should come next.—Cleveland Leader.

History Repeats Itself.
New York operative history is repeating itself. The singers get the money and the impresario gets a black eye.—Washington Star.

One Claim to Fame.
Whatever may be said against Theodore Roosevelt, newspaper history will put him down as the best news source since Jackson.—Atlanta Journal.

Makes Women Happy.
But for the inventive faculty of man in the matter of feminine clothing, how would fair woman exist or enjoy life?—The Drapery Times.

Time for Parental Concern.
It is time for the wise parent to take action when his son acquires the nickname of "Kid."—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Was Slightly Delayed.
Mr. Maxine's gift of a noise silencer to the present chief magistrate was thoughtful but belated.—New York Sun.

Another Argument.
In New York they are using babies as collateral for loanable money against race suicide.—Washington Herald.

Congressional Neglect.
Apparently the forests of the White and Appalachian mountains are not being saved if congress can help it.—New York Tribune.

How Taft Impressed Auntie.

Dr. Washington told of having been in Georgia just after Mr. Taft had left there during his recent southern tour, and of having visited a house where Mr. Taft had been entertained. The proprietor of the house said, according to Dr. Washington, that after the president-elect had left he went to the kitchen and asked the cook, an old negro "Auntie," if she knew who had been entertained.

"No, boss," I ain't never heard tell of him," said the Auntie again. "The master of the house started to walk away."

"But wait a minute, boss," exclaimed the negro. "He sholy do look like he's been regular at his meals."

Mr. Taft joined in the laugh that followed this joke at his expense. He took out a notebook and made an entry in it, probably for future reference.—New York Times.

But One Bath a Week.
A St. Louis man is suing for divorce because his wife compels him to live up to a set of commandments of her own making. He has to retire when she rang a bell and she allowed him but one bath a week, while the rest of the time he was to be clean.

Pirates.
A Boston man sells a dog for $2,500; a member of the Aquarium society of Philadelphia paid $100 for a rare goldfish that weighed less than two ounces. There's no accounting for tastes, as the old woman remarked when she kissed the cow.

Adding to Platt's Anguish.
In denouncing that he favors a reduction in the parcels post rate, Senator Root shows that he knows where to find his predecessor's tenderest and most express corn.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Of All Sad Words.
Mr. Dewey will pay $300 for a room from which to see Mr. Taft. He is not into an office that he, Mr. Dewey, might have had been been great enough and straight enough.—Houston Post.

Has Special Information.
Uncle Ike Stephenson does not think he is seeking a tainted seat as senatorial seats go. He knows a thing or two about the senate.—Birmingham Age Herald.

Sounds Good to Them.
A good many California people who don't know what "segregation" means are demanding it because they think it is something anti-Japanese.—Kansas City Star.

Harriman as a Collector.
It begins to look as if E. H. Harriman collects rare railroad directorships the same as J. P. Morgan does art pieces.—Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

These Are Sad Days.
Shades of Daniel Webster! We have fallen on times when even the congressional record needs to be expurgated.—Detroit News-Tribune.

Good Time to Test It.
In view of the high cost of living, this would be a good time to test the efficacy of getting up from the table hungry.—Toledo Blade.

Pretty Poor Backing.
In this emergency Governor Haskell of Oklahoma may fall back on the good character given him last year by Mr. Bryan.—Chicago Tribune.

Do not use Soap, Naphtha, Borax, Soda, Ammonia or Kerosene with GOLD DUST

GOLD DUST has all desirable cleansing qualities in perfectly harmless and lasting form.

The GOLD DUST Twins need no outside help. No matter what you wish to clean—dishes, clothes, pots and pans, floors and woodwork, refrigerator, bath room or what not, GOLD DUST alone will do all the work—and do it better than anything else.

More than that, GOLD DUST will do all the hard part of the work without your help, saving your strength and temper.

GOLD DUST is a good, honest, vegetable oil soap in powdered form—scientifically combined with purifying ingredients of magic power.
